

Wes Odell

At age 87 Wes Odell is one of the old-time film photographers in the Hive. He is a prolific competitor and exhibitor with a multitude of award winning photographs from State and County Fairs, the Photographic Society of America (where he won First Place in two International competitions.) Sun City Photography Club where he has won two Best of Shows in their annual competitions, the Williamson County Art Guild, Round Rock Arts Alliance, the Georgetown Art Center, and the Texas Photographic Society His photos have appeared numerous times as covers of the "Sun Rays" magazine. He has belonged to six photographic organizations, five in Texas. He is a founder of the Art Attack, the Photography Judges of Williamson County, a founding member of the Sun City Photography Club, and was the President of the Wasatch Camera Club, Utah's largest club.

Wes has been a life-long photographer, having his own darkroom at age 12, and making pictures while living all over the West. Photography is in his genes. His grandfather established a photo portrait studio in Logan, Utah in 1892 and all of his descendants have had a camera in their hands since childhood. His preference is Black and White images, action, and vintage-like photos.

He has taught Photography Basics and Photoshop and was on the faculty of the Photographic Society of America (PSA) for several years.

BEE CAVE ARTS FOUNDATION - ARTIST REGISTRY

info@beecavearts.org 512-522-9467

The Hive: 12700 Hill Country Blvd Suite T125 Bee Cave, TX 78738