

The Hive by Bee Cave Arts Foundation Members Exhibition Guidelines & Agreement

ARTWORK: All artists agree to donate 30% of their sales to the BCAF.

Art content must be family-friendly and exclude nudity, offensive or violent subject matter, or political statements. Art must be delivered on scheduled delivery date and collected on scheduled strike date. Artwork must hang for the entire show and may not be removed or replaced prior to the strike date unless given prior permission by the BCAF. If the artwork is sold and the buyer takes the work at the time of the sale the artist will be notified and asked to bring a work to replace the piece that sold.

All 2D artworks must be labeled on the back to with the Title of Painting and Artist Name and be ready to hang. Frames must be in good condition and properly wired on the back

All 3D artworks must have a temporarily attached label with the Title of Painting and Artist Name and should have a pedestal in good condition ready for installation.

BCAF has the right to refuse any artwork.

BCAF assumes no responsibility for lost or damage to artwork.

PHOTOGRAPHS & MARKETING: The artist agrees to allow the BCAF and/or BCAF's representatives to photograph exhibiting artwork. Images of exhibiting artwork will be used for business purposes, including, but not limited to: press, publications, the BCAF website, social media, marketing, advertising, and print. Artist may request that their work not be photographed or used for specific purposes. This request must be received by the designated delivery date of the artwork in writing. BCAF will create marketing material for the exhibition. This material will be shared by email with the artist prior to the show.

INSTALLATION & STRIKE: BCAF will be responsible for the curation and installation. Artists will be required to pay BCAF $10 per day for artwork that is NOT picked up on the strike day.

SALES: Artists will be notified of all sales of their work. The BCAF will handle sales and will use the Venmo information provided by the artist when possible. Artists will receive payment on the strike date. Donation to BCAF of 30% must be made on the strike date.
